Summer School Online Report

Greenshaw High School conducted Summer School from Monday 23rd August 2021 to Friday 27th August 2021. Our Summer School was designed following the Summer Schools Guidance published by the DfE.

What we offered?

Greenshaw High School ran a Transition Summer School programme designed to support students with preparing for secondary school. In addition, we ran a 1 day Emotional Wellbeing programme. The following programmes were in place:

What?	Description	Number invited	Selection process
Transition support	This was a 5 day programme designed to support wellbeing, familiarise students with their new school environment and help them to forge relationships with peers and staff. The emphasis was on engagement, enrichment and creativity. It incorporated a range of activities including Reading, sport, geography, mindfulness, team building and food technology.	94	Students were identified according to information we received from primary school that indicated they might benefit from additional support with the transition.
Emotional Wellbeing	This was a 1 day programme delivered by Emotional Wellbeing Practitioners.	30
